Flowchart for Soldier Integration and Interaction with Fort Carson

Soldier receives Orders to PCS to Fort Carson

This flowchart does not attempt to capture everything a Soldier undergoes during his/her tour at Fort Carson. It is a facilitation tool for break-out sessions.

Pinpoint Assignment?

No → Soldier can receive Info by mail or on-line

Yes → Soldier may be assigned a sponsor to assist in transition

Soldier coordinates PCS and transportation from present duty

Soldier reports to Welcome Ctr for in-processing

Soldier will receive pinpoint Assignment from the PSB if he/she does not already have a designated assignment

Soldier In-processes installation and goes through SRP Site – then reports to unit

This is the initial interaction piece for support services. Soldier receives classes and must fill-in questionnaires from each agency. ACS, Chap, and MEDDAC have a chance to interview Soldier

Married?

No → Soldier moves-into barracks room and his/her squad leader assist to integrate

Yes → Soldier finds quarters and provides family info to FRG – Squad leader assist Soldier

FRG provides assistance to Soldier's family and interacts with spouse to ensure family welfare is alright, or assist with any issues

Soldier performs duties with Unit and conducts mandatory annual training

Mandatory training elements include informing Soldier on how to access support services and required by DA

Chart Information:*
This chart attempts to facilitate discussion as to where supports services intervene in the process of integration to the post. There may be exceptions as with every case. More importantly is the ability to recognize how the Soldier can access support services along the process, or from arrival to departure from Fort Carson.

Soldier experiences issues during tour at Fort Carson

Assistance?

Yes → Soldier turns to Unit who brings Soldier to appropriate assistance

ACS, Chap, or Medical Servic are provided to Soldier

All Installation Support Services are avail.
to assist Soldier with any issues – intervention is required

No → Soldier continues with tour and SRPs upon deployment or on annual basis

Assistance?

Yes

Soldier assistance during a deployment is treated in theater first and if further evacuation is required Soldier may go back to Fort Carson or where appropriate se[illegible] are found

No → Soldier receives Orders to PCS to another Installation

Key Questions:*
(1) What can be done to further assist the So
(2) Is the Soldier cared for during his/her tou at Fort Carson?
(3) Where are areas we can improve on for th Soldier and his/her family?
(4) What extra or excluded steps are not cove that must be addressed?
(5) Is the flow diagram procedures actually happening?

Flowchart for Family Integration and Interaction with Fort Carson

Family accompanies Soldier to Fort Carson

If any family member is EFMP, then coordination will be made from loosing MTF to EACH

Info received?

No

Family can receive Info by mail, on-line, or from loosing installation

Yes

Family is informed and can ask questions to POCs in info packet

Soldier informs family on briefings from in-processing

Family can inquire on services based on info and POCs

Soldier will receive briefings during in-processing and is encouraged to share info with his/her family members.

This is the initial interaction piece for support services. Soldier receives classes and must fill-in questionnaires from each agency. ACS, Chap, and MEDDAC have a chance to interview Soldier

Chart Information:*
This chart attempts to facilitate discussion as to where supports services intervene in the process of integration to the post. There may be exceptions as with every case. More importantly is the ability to recognize how the family can access support services along the process, or from arrival to departure from Fort Carson.

Post Housing?

No

Family relies on immediate community and FRG for integration

FRG provides assistance to family and interacts with spouse to ensure family welfare is alright, or assist with any issues

Yes

Family becomes more familiar with post and Unit FRG contacts family

FRG provides assistance to Soldier's family and interacts with spouse to ensure family welfare is alright, or assist with any issues

Family chooses to enroll at MEDDAC, Air Force or Network Provider

During enrollment, family member will receive a benefits briefing to access medical services via TRICARE

Family experiences issues during tour at Fort Carson

Assistance?

Yes

Family turns to Soldier who relies on Unit for guidance or FRG for direction

ACS, Chap, or Medical Servic are provided to Soldier

All Installation Support Services are avail.
to assist Soldier with any issues – intervention is required

No

Family continues tour – Soldier deploys

Assistance?

Yes

Family assistance during a deployment is access in the same manner during Soldier regular duty on installation. FRGs are a key part to guide families.

No

Soldier receives Orders to PCS to another Installation

Key Questions:*
(1) What can be done to further assist the Fa
(2) Is the Family cared for during his/her tou at Fort Carson?
(3) Where are areas we can improve on for th Soldier's family?
(4) What extra or excluded steps are not cov that must be addressed?
(5) Is the flow diagram procedures actually happening?

Flowchart for Youth Integration and Interaction with Fort Carson

Family accompanies Soldier to Fort Carson

If any family member is EFMP, then coordination will be made from loosing MTF to EACH

Youth School Aged?

No

Child youth services can be coordinated either on post or off

Yes

Youth enrolls in school either on or off post depending on residence & age

CYS plays a vital role for youths on post. Community school systems are main outreach off-post

Youth can participate in extracurricular activities on or off post

Youth receives all info from family and takes guidance accordingly

Soldier will receive briefings during in-processing and is encouraged to share info with his/her family members.

This is the initial interaction piece for support services. Soldier receives classes and must fill-in questionnaires from each agency. ACS, Chap, and MEDDAC have a chance to interview Soldier

Chart Information:*
This chart attempts to facilitate discussion as to where supports services intervene in the process of integration to the post. There may be exceptions as with every case. More importantly is the ability to recognize how the family can access support services along the process, or from arrival to departure from Fort Carson.

Post Housing?

No

Youth relies on immediate community resources

FRG provides assistance to family and interacts with spouse to ensure family welfare is alright, or assist with any issues

Yes

Youth becomes more familiar with post and various services through family

FRG provides assistance to Soldier's family and interacts with spouse to ensure family welfare is alright, or assist with any issues

Youth enrolls at MEDDAC or Network Provider

During enrollment, family member will receive a benefits briefing to access medical services via TRICARE

Youth experiences issues during tour at Fort Carson

Assistance?

Yes

Youth turns to family, who requests assistance

ACS, Chap, or Medical Servic are provided to Soldier

All Installation Support Services are avail. to assist Soldier with any issues – intervention is required

No

Youth continues tour – Soldier deploys

Assistance?

Yes

Family assistance during a deployment is access in the same manner during Soldier regular duty on installation. FRGs are a key part to guide families.

No

Soldier receives Orders to PCS to another Installation

Key Questions:*
(1) What can be done to further assist the Yo
(2) Is the Youth cared for during his/her tour at Fort Carson?
(3) Where are areas we can improve on for th Soldier's family?
(4) What extra or excluded steps are not cov that must be addressed?
(5) Is the flow diagram procedures actually happening?